

SHORT BIOGRAPHY

MALEVA RISTANANDA

Maleva is an accomplished pianist and a skillful composer from Indonesia. Her eclectic style in writing music embraces a mix of Classical, Jazz, Ethnic, Contemporary and Atonal.

At the age of 10, she composed her first piece for a piano solo titled "Dance of the Waterfall". Her ever-growing love for composing and orchestration sparked her journey in pursuing a Bachelor (Hons) Music degree at LASALLE College of the Arts, Singapore.

Garnering influences from composers such as John Williams, Alexandre Desplat, Thomas Newman and Hans Zimmer, she has composed for various mediums and productions such as for a mini-musical performance put up by Jakarta Movement of Inspiration, a Christmas Concert by Ensemble de la Belle Musique etc.

Maleva's distilled and unique vocals can also be heard in her works and performances with bands where she often performs and sings. Her works can be found on Soundcloud and she is contactable through Instagram or Email.

